Annual Dues $20 (1 July - 30 June)

With Articles of Incorporation issued by the State of Arkansas on 7 January 1992, the Arkansas Jazz Heritage Foundation (which sponsors and maintains the Arkansas Jazz Hall of Fame established in 1994) is an all-volunteer nonprofit dedicated to educating the general public about the historical significance of jazz in Arkansas. Foundation membership is open to any adult (21+) interested in preserving, celebrating, and promoting jazz in The Natural State. Scanned copies of the membership application and organizational profile for the Foundation, as well as a reference sheet and nomination form for the Hall of Fame, can be found in the "AJHF: Reference Materials" album under "Photos" on the Foundation's public Facebook page (<https://www.facebook.com/Arkansas-Jazz-Heritage-Foundation-115070468552197/>) (linked via top tab on each page of the 1992-2014 archival website shown above). All questions and/or requests for materials should be directed to AJHF Secretary Alita Mantels (501.661.1604, alita.mantels@sbcglobal.net).

WHAT: 2018 Arkansas Jazz Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony with Jazz Celebration
(Sponsored and Presented by the Arkansas Jazz Heritage Foundation)

This unique and historic event (open to the public) will be held immediately after the members-only annual meeting for the Arkansas Jazz Heritage Foundation. The event's first hour will be devoted to honoring new inductees into the Arkansas Jazz Hall of Fame: Bob Boyd, Brian Brown, Red Holloway, Rose Marie McCoy, Snub Mosley, Nan Maureen Renaud, George Ryan, Henry Shead. A jazz celebration after the inductions will feature performances by special guests (some of whom have been or will be inducted into the Arkansas Jazz Hall of Fame) with a combo including 2014 Arkansas Jazz Hall of Fame inductee Joe Vick (upright bass), Julia Buckingham (keys), Sim Flora (trombone, flute), and Bryan Withers (drums).

WHO: Inductees, Other Distinguished Jazz Artists, Public Audience (Adults Only)

WHEN: Monday, 18 June 2018 (8-11 p.m.)

WHERE: The Ballroom at The Capital Hotel (www.capitalhotel.com) in Little Rock

During the event there will be a cash bar and table seating for approximately 100 in the ballroom (located at the south end of the lobby). The Capital Bar and Grill (www.capitalbarandgrill.com) will be open before and during the event.

COST: The admission fee is only $20 (cash/check at the door) but larger donations are encouraged. The fee is waived for any current/former/new Foundation member who submits 2018-2019 dues ($20 payable 1 July 2018) by 1 June 2018. All event proceeds, dues, and donations are used to help defray expenses associated with Arkansas Jazz Hall of Fame inductions (held in even-numbered years) and ongoing educational activities of the Arkansas Jazz Heritage Foundation.

More details are provided via event and venue links within an entry under the "Calendar" top tab at <https://arkansas.jazznearyou.com>.
